Owing to the fact that 5.212 residents of Windham are entitled to vote at the election next week Tuesday, two checksers are to have their places in the old town building on Church street, one for the women voters and one for the men. Thus with faster checking it is expected that all voters can use their bailot before the hour for closing arrives. Both men and women voters will, however, cast their ballots in the same box. At a recent session of the Connecticut general assembly the town of Windham was given the privilege of making its voting hours from 5.20 in the morning until s in the evening, this grant being made owing to the fact that Windham has but one voting place and has over 5.000 electors. The selectmen of the town are of the opinion that if the voters turn out bright and early and do not wait until the last minuts, twelve and one-half hours should be long enough in which to cast the ballots. Therefore, the polls in Windham will be opened at 5.20 a. m. and will clse at 6 p. m., the same as in other towns.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The critics have been very kind to Alien McQuhae, the young Irish-American tenor who makes his appearance on Nov. 2th, at The Community House. Wilson G. Smith, one of America's best known composers and writers on musical subjects, is not easily betrayed into enthusiasm so that praise from his pen is praise indeed. He wrote of McQuhae, "His singing was not only of the best, but highly creditable and admirable. His voice is of pleasing quality and his use of it both in recitative and arias was unusually refined and expressive." "A. B." who writes for the Musical America in a review a year and ical America in a review a year and a half ago said "It is a satisfaction to watch the development of such a voice as that of Allen McQuhae, whose rebus. tenor has a warmth and ringing clarity of tone usually observed in the experienced concert singer, but not so aften found in younger ones. His dramatic sense and emotional temperament gas life to his interpretations. Flattering predictions for the foundations. predictions for the future were heard on all sides after, his singing of the Arioso from Pagliacci on Monday evening, and later of another concert.
